UPDATE

75th Unicameral Legislature convenes

Senators returned to the State Capitol Jan. 4 to begin the second session of the 102nd Nebraska Legislature. The session marks the 75th anniversary of the meeting of the state's first unicameral legislature.

Nebraska Unicameral

1937-2012

Among the major issues expected to dominate this session are several proposals to address recent reforms of the state's child welfare system undertaken by the state Department of Health and Human Services.

Senators also likely will consider the possible creation of a state-based health insurance exchange and a variety of proposals focusing on job creation.

New bills will be introduced for the first 10 legislative days, or until Jan. 19. Senators will begin floor debate on bills carried over from 2011 on Jan. 10.

Live coverage of the legislative session is provided at www.NebraskaLegislature.gov, where citizens also may find information about bills, the legislative calendar and Nebraska state senators.

Gov. Dave Heineman's State of the State address is scheduled for Jan. 12. Committee hearings are scheduled to begin on Jan. 17 and will continue through February.

The session will last 60 legislative days and is tentatively scheduled to adjourn April 12. ■

Sen. Utter of Hastings dies

Sen. Dennis Utter of Hastings died Dec. 27 due to health complications.

Elected in 2008 to serve District 33, Utter was a former city council member and mayor of McCook. He served on the Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee and as vice chairperson of the Revenue Committee.

Utter played a key role in the Commission of Industrial Relations reform efforts undertaken by the Legislature in 2011. A retired banker, Utter also focused on rural economic development issues and sponsored an attempt to abolish the state treasurer's office in 2010.

Speaker Mike Flood of Norfolk said Utter would be missed by his fellow senators.

"Sen. Utter was a true gentleman, a man who cared about his family, his community and our state," Flood said.

Kearney Sen. Galen Hadley also spoke in remembrance of his colleague on the opening day of the legislative session, noting the empty seat in the chamber.

"[Utter] was someone with a gruff exterior, but also someone with a heart of gold," Hadley said. "He gave us a compass that we followed along the last few years. We'll miss him greatly."

Utter, 72, is survived by his wife, Kathryn and three children: Mark, Ward and Denise.

The senator's staff will remain in the office until a new senator is appointed by the governor. ■
